Dear, Mr. Faaza Fakhrunnas:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Jurnal Ekonomi & Studi Pembangunan, "TOTAL FINANCING OF ISLAMIC RURAL BANKS AND REGIONAL MACROECONOMIC FACTORS; A PANEL DYNAMIC APPROACH".

Our decision is to: REVISIONS REQUIRED
Please complete the review and upload your revised manuscript on OJS no later than April, 22 2020.

This paper has a good potential to be published in the JESP.

The issue discussed in this paper is not quite new, but remains interesting on the condition that the authors are able to generate a convincing motivating background.

In abstract: "This recommendation for the central bank is aimed to maintain and boosts Islamic rural bank's financing that will benefit for financial industry in Indonesia. ...through which policy? —need to be extended to address this issue.

In the introduction part, the author needs to emphasize on the transmission process form selected macroeconomics variables to financing in Islamic Rural bank.

If these macroeconomic variables have empirical impacts toward financing in Islamic rural banks, then the future research is expected to elaborate the optimal values of these macro variables which can maintain always the positive impact on financing level.

The Author does not seem to be able to elaborate his findings and relate them with previous findings. I would suggest the author to answer the following questions for further elaboration of their findings: (1) Are the findings here consistent or inconsistent to the findings in previous works? (2) What could be the reason for the inconsistency? (3) What is the implication of the consistency or inconsistency?

The Author need to elaborate their recommendations in terms of policy and also their insights about how future works should be done in response to the limitation of this paper.

In sum, revisions are required for this paper. With some minor revisions, I believe that this paper can be accepted for a publication in the JESP.

Thank you for your cooperation.
